Example: On what day did January 25, 1881, fall? Look for '81; at the head of that column you will find 2; then find January below; follow line across from January until you get to 2; then run up the column immediately above 2 until you get to 25, and alongside of that date you will find Tu.—Tuesday is the correct day.

If you want any date in 1900, run up to the 1900 index; if in 1700, run up to the 1700 index.

Note:—The leap years follow the blank spaces; for these years use the index figures above the blank spaces for January and February, or count one day back.

DOMESTIC RATES of postage apply on matter for the United States, Alaska, Republic of Panama, Canal Zone, Hawaii, the Philippines, Porto Rico and other Island Possessions.

Domestic mail matter is divided into four classes as follows:

FIRST CLASS—Letters and all other written matter, sealed or unsealed, and all matter sealed or otherwise closed against inspection; 2 cents each ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight four pounds. Postal cards 1 cent each. Drop letters at non-carrier offices 1 cent each ounce or fraction thereof.

SECOND CLASS—Newspapers, Periodicals, conforming to certain regulations, when mailed by the publisher or news agent, 1 cent per pound. When mailed by others than the publisher or news agent, 1 cent for each four ounces or fraction thereof.

THIRD CLASS—Printed matter, not sealed, wrapped to permit inspection, 1 cent each two ounces or fraction thereof. Limit of weight four pounds, except single books, which may weigh in excess of four pounds.

Third class matter includes books, circulars, photographs, catalogues, sheet music, posters, advertising matter, proof-sheets, corrected proof-sheets and manuscript copy accompanying same.

FOURTH CLASS—Merchandise and matter not included in the foregoing classes, not sealed, and wrapped to permit inspection, 1 cent each ounce or fraction thereof. Limit of weight four pounds.

Upon matter of the third class or upon the envelope or wrapper enclosing same, the sender may write his own name, residence or business address, preceded by the word, "From," or may place upon or in the book or photograph, a simple dedication or inscription.

POSTAGE RATES

SPECIAL DELIVERY—Immediate delivery of any piece of mail matter by special messenger, in all cities and towns having a free delivery service, is effected (within certain hours and distances) by the affixing of a special delivery stamp, price 10 cents, or writing on the envelope or wrapper the words "Special Delivery" and affixing stamps to the value of 10 cents, in addition to the regular postage required.

REGISTRATION of any letter or package (for domestic or foreign mails) costs 8 cents in addition to the regular postage.

First class matter is forwarded or returned to the sender without extra charge, but matter of the other classes requires additional postage for each change of address.

UNMAILABLE—Poisons, explosives, inflammables, live animals (except bees), substances that are ill smelling or liable to injure postal employees, immoral matter and all matter not complying with above regulations as to weight, prepayment, etc., or insufficiently addressed.

RED LETTER DAYS

Baby Girl Arrives.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Howard at their home 447 Eleventh street at 5 o'clock Sunday evening. The young lady has been named Hester Carol. Mr. Howard is the popular steward at the Elks club. Mother and child are doing fine. As for Jack, well he is able to sit up and take a little nourishment. Dr. Waffle accompanied the stork on its mission to the Howard home.

June 27th 1915

New Deputy Treasurer.

Clatsop county has a new deputy treasurer. The young lady who fills this position came to make her home with Treasurer Edgar and Mrs. Gearhart Sunday morning. She weighs eight pounds and just at present is demanding a great deal of attention which of course is freely given. Both mother and child are progressing nicely. June 27 - 1915

THINGS ABOUT MYSELF

On Tuesday evening the D. M. C. D. club was entertained by Miss May Utzinger in honor of Miss Elizabeth Hemphill of Auburn, Wash., and Miss Valeska Liebe of The Dalles, Ore., house guests at the Utzinger home. During the evening the guests were surprised at the announcement of the engagement of Miss Nell Utzinger to Mr. John F. Howard. The table decorations were elaborate and unique, consisting of a centerpiece of Jacque roses surmounted by a cupid, red hearts, miniature candleabras and heart candy baskets. The wedding will take place in the early fall. Those present were the Miss Alma and Amy Holmes, Lucy Morton, Mary Fossett, Kate Sinnott, Anna Campbell, Dr. Clara Waffle, Mrs. J. J. Utzinger, Bess Reed, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Mrs. C. W. Halderman, Mrs. F. Vaughn, Mrs. I. F. Morrison, Mrs. A. F. Utzinger, the honor guests, Miss Liebe and Miss Hamphill and the Misses Nell, May and Hattie Utzinger, Mrs. J. C. Utzinger and Mrs. C. C. Utzinger.

THE SUNDAY OREGONIAN, PORTLAND, JULY 6, 1913.

Mrs. C. C. Utzinger, of Astoria, announces the engagement of her daughter, Nellie E., to John F. Howard, of Astoria. The wedding will be in September.

Miss Thora Larson has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given at her Altoona home on August fourth in honor of Miss Nell Utzinger whose engagement was recently announced.

The Neighborhood Sewing Club met on Wednesday evening of this week with Miss Nellie Utzinger.

Miss Nell Utzinger left last Thursday evening for Portland to meet her cousin, Miss Marie Utzinger who is returning from a six months visit in California.

THINGS ABOUT MYSELF

ASTORIA, OREGON, SUNDAY, JULY 6, 1913

The engagement of Miss Nell Utzinger and Mr. John Howard was announced at an evening given by Miss May Utzinger on Tuesday. The hostess asked in the members of the D. M. C. D. Club and friends, complimentary to Miss Valeske Liebe of The Dalles, and Miss Elizabeth Hemple of Auburn, Wash. The guests passed the early evening in sewing and adjourned to the dining room when supper was announced. The decorations here were carried out in red. Centering the table was a pyramid arrangement of crimson roses, upon which was a tiny cupid holding red ribbons which ran to each place. On pulling the ribbons the pictures of Miss Utzinger and Mr. Howard in heart shape and rolled within an engagement ring, was drawn from among the roses. Favors were red baskets of candy tied with golden hearts, and heart-shaped paper cases of salted almonds. Red paper hearts were arranged in designs about the table. Miss Utzinger was the recipient of the best wishes from her friends. The wedding is planned for September. Present at this affair were: Miss Valeska Liebe, Miss Elizabeth Hemple, Mrs. George Nelson, Miss Bess Reed, Miss Alma Holmes, Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Mrs. Ervin Morrison, Miss Anna Campbell, Miss Lucy Morton, Miss May Fossett, Miss Kate Sinnott, Mrs. J. THINGS ABOUT MYSELF

A charming affair of the week was the luncheon given on Monday by Miss Thora Larsen of Altoona, in honor of Miss Nell Utzinger, who will be a fall bride. The guests left on the steamer Harvest Queen, the ride up the river in the early morning proving delightful. Upon arriving at Altoona, a short trip along the river in launches to Miller's sands was made. At noon, a delicious luncheon was served. The rooms and tables were decorated with sweet peas, dahlias and maiden hair ferns. The guest of honor was agreeably surprised with a miscellaneous shower of towels, handkerchiefs and China. The following were present: Miss Amy Holmes, Miss Kate Sinnott, Miss Marie Utzinger, Dr. Clara Waffle, Miss Alma Holmes, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. J. J. Utzinger, Miss Anna Campbell, Mrs. Howard Knight, and Miss Eunice Case of Klama, Miss Lucy Morton, Miss Gussie Holmes, Miss May Utzinger, Miss Mame Fossett, Miss Jessie Sands, Mrs. Albert Utzinger, Miss Thora Larson, Miss Edna Winneberg of Portland and Miss Nell Utzinger.

Miss Nell Utzinger, a bride-elect, was favored with a luncheon and miscellaneous shower by Miss Thora Larsen at her Altoona home on Monday. The guests left Astoria on the early boat and on arriving at Altoona were taken in launches to Miller's sands where seining was in progress. Luncheon was served at Miss Larsen's home at noon. The table was beautifully appointed with sweet peas, dahlias and maiden-hair fern. The shower consisting of linen and china followed. The remainder of the afternoon was pleasantly spent. Guests at this affair were: Miss Amy Holmes, Miss Kate Sinnott, Miss Marie Utzinger, Dr. Clara Waffle, Miss Alma Holmes, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. J. J. Utzinger, Miss Anna Campbell, Mrs. Howard Knight, Miss Eunice Case, of Kalama; Miss Lucy Morton, Miss Augusta Holmes, Miss May Utzinger, Miss May Fossett, Miss Jessie Sands, Mrs. Albert Utzinger, Miss Edna Winneberg, of Portland, and Miss Nell Utzinger.

THINGS ABOUT MYSELF

Dr. Clara Waffle entertained with a kitchen shower for Miss Nell Utzinger, whose wedding will take place in early September, on Tuesday evening, when her guests were the members of the D. M. C. D. Club. The rooms of her home were prettily decorated with honeysuckle and the guests spent the evening in sewing. Later they adjourned to the dining room where a delicious supper was served. Here the color scheme was yellow. A cut glass bowl of French Marigolds centered the table and the place cards were dainty yellow designs. The menu was carried out in the same color scheme. Miss Utzinger received many useful and durable kitchen utensils. Guests were: Miss Eunice Case of Kalama, Miss Lucy Morton, Miss Anna Campbell, Miss May Fossett, Miss Thora Larson, Miss May Utzinger, Mrs. Albert Utzinger, Mrs. O. F. Morrison, Mrs. J. J. Utzinger, Misses Amy and Alma Holmes, Miss Jessie Sands, Mrs. Frank Vaughn, Miss Marie Utzinger, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. Howard Knight and Miss Utzinger. The guests were taken home in the Waffle and Vaughn automobiles.

Miss Kate Sinnott entertained the D. M. C. D. Club yesterday afternoon complimentary to Miss Nell Utzinger whose wedding will be an event of early September.

For Miss Nellie Utzinger, a bride of next month, Miss Marie Utzinger entertained at luncheon on Wednesday. Decorations of yellow were used, this color being carried throughout the house. A huge bowl of yellow Nasturtiums centered the table, while place cards bearing California Poppies were used, and tiny yellow baskets served as favors. After luncheon the affair was turned into a thimble party, and during the afternoon interesting music was heard. The guests included Miss Nellie Utzinger, Miss Thora Larson, of Altoona, and her guest Miss Edna Wennerberg, Miss Amy Holmes, Miss Lucy Morton, Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Miss Alma Holmes, Miss Jessie Sands, Miss Hattie Utzinger, Mrs. George Nelson, Miss May Utzinger, Miss Augusta Holmes, Miss Mame Fossett, Mrs. J. J. Utzinger and Mrs. Albert Utzinger.

Miss Bess Reed entertained the Neighborhood Sewing Club on Wednesday evening. After a few hours spent in sewing a dainty supper was served in the dining room. The club presented Miss Nell Utzinger, a bride elect, with half a dozen gold and white Haviland plates. Present were: Mrs. J. Strombery, Mrs. Charles Halderman, Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Miss May Utzinger, Miss Nellie Utzinger, Miss Grenville Reed, Miss Polly Hunter of Clatsop and the hostess.

Thursday evening Miss Lucy Morton was hostess to the members of the D. M. C. D. Club. Miss Nellie Utzinger a bride of next month was the honor guest, and the affair took the form of a trousseau shower for her. Elaborate decorations were used to make the rooms attractive, and a delightful evening was enjoyed.

THINGS ABOUT MYSELF

Miss Marie Utzinger presided at luncheon on Wednesday when Miss Nellie Utzinger was favored as honor guest. Yellow flowers of every description were noticeable about the rooms. The dining room was beautifully appointed. Centering the table was a crystal bowl of gorgeous nasturtiums. Cards of a dainty California poppy design marked the places. Favors were golden baskets filled with mints. After luncheon a pleasant hour was spent in sewing and impromptu music. Covers were laid for: Miss Utzinger, Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Miss Thora Larson of Altoona and her guest, Miss Edna Wennerberg, Miss Lucy Morton, Miss Amy Holmes, Miss Alma Homes, Miss Jessie Sands, Miss Hattie Utzinger, Mrs. George Nelson, Miss May Utzinger, Miss Augusta Holmes, Miss May Fossett, Mrs. Albert Utzinger and Mrs. J. The wedding of John Howard to Miss Nellie Utzinger will take place this evening in Grace Episcopal church.

The D. M. C. Club shower in honor of one of their members, Miss Nell Utzinger, a bride elect, at the home of Miss Lucy Morton on Thursday evening was one of the prettiest events of the week. The hall was tastefully decorated with countless pink sweet peas. In the living room bouquets of red carnations and dahlias of a similar shade were used to advantage. The dining room was decorated in yellow. Baskets of clematis hung about the room and golden dahlias were in every available nook and corner. Centering the table were yellow nasturtiums, and canary shades used on the candles spread a soft glow over the table. The place cards were dainty hand-painted designs. Five Hundred was played in the early evening and on counting up the dainty Dutch score cards, Mrs. Nelson Troyer held high cards, and was awarded a lovely prize gift. In the shower Miss Utzinger received many beautiful gifts in handwork and linen. Present were: Miss Utzinger, Mrs. Nelson Troyer, Dr. Clara Waffle, Miss May Utzinger, Miss Thora Larson and guest, Miss Winnerberg, Miss Augusta Holmes, Miss Amy Holmes, Miss Alma Holmes, Mrs. George Nelson, Miss May Fossett, Miss Marie Utzinger, Mrs. J. One of the prettiest weddings of the season was solemnized in the Grace Episcopal Church Tuesday evening when Miss Nellie Emma Utzinger became the bride of John Franklin Howard; Rev. Ros nmuller pastor performing the ceremony in the presence of a host of admiring friends. Proceeding the marriage, the strains of "Oh Promise Me" and other selections were beautifully rendered by Mrs. Brenham Van Dusan at the pipe organ.

The bride was attended by Mrs. W. P. Ogilvie (Miss Carol Young) of Vancouver, B. C., as matron of honor, and Miss Valeska Liebe of the Dalles and Miss May Utzinger as bridesmaids.

The duties of best man were ably looked after by Mr. Randell Reed and the ushers were Mr. Stanley Young and Mr. William Utzinger.

After the ceremony the happy couple, their attendants, a few intimate friends and the members of the D. M. C. D. and Neighborhood Sewing Clubs, repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. C. C. Utzinger where an informal reception was held. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Howard will make their home in Astoria.

Mrs. Edward Jamieson and Mrs. James Jamieson of Jewell who were in the city for the Howard Utzinger wedding the early part of the week returned to their homes Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. I. Bergman and Miss Mary Iverson are visiting friends in the city. They came up from their Wahanna summer home to attend the wedding of their friends, Miss Nellie Utzinger and Mr. John Franklin Howard.

Mrs. W. P. Ogilvie of Vancouver, B. C., who acted as matron of honor at the Howard-Utzinger wedding left Saturday morning for her home.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Howard (Miss Nellie Utzinger) returned Tuesday from a three days trip to Nehalem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard have returned from Nehalem and are staying with Mrs. C. C. Utzinger until their home on Harrison avenue is ready for them.

Tuesday evening in Grace Episcopal Church, a most attractive wedding took place when Miss Nellie Emma Utzinger, eldest daughter of Mrs. C. C. Utzinger of this city, was married to John Franklin Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H Howard, of Gooding, Idaho. The church had been turned into a perfect bower of blossoms by members of the D. M. C. D. Club, of which the bride is a member. Masses of blue hydrangias hid the choir pews from view, while smilax surrounded the whole with charming effect. Baskets of pink sweet peas hung from the lights, and at the entrance to every pew, a small basket of brilliant pink peas was hung. The altar held two vases of brides' roses and smilax. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Brenham Van Dusen, organist, played, "O, Promise Me," and to "Lohnegrin," the groom, his best man, Randall Reed, and Rev. Mr. Rosenmuller, entered. At the same moment the ushers, Stanley Young, William Utzinger; Miss Valeska Liebe and Miss May Utzinger as bridesmaids, came down the aisle, followed by Mrs. Ogilvy, as matron of honor, and the bride, on the arm of her brother, Grover Utzinger, who gave her in marriage. After the short ring service of the Episcopal church, the newly married couple passed from the church to the music of Mendelssohn's "Wedding March," and to the home of the bride's mother, where an informal reception was held. The bride's wedding gown of white brocaded meteor, was made with a full length train, and trimmed with real lace. She wore a long veil caught into a mob cap with orange blossoms. Her bouquet of bride's roses was showered with white sweet peas. Her only ornament was the gift of the groom, a diamond pen-dant. Miss Valeska Liebe, of The Dalles, who was bridesmaid, was gowned in pink charmeuse, made en train, and with trimmings of beaded lace. Touches of lavender showed at the girdle. Bird of Paradise was worn in her coiffure and her flowers were shaggy pink asters. Miss May Utzinger, sister of the bride, was also bridesmaid, and her gown was of pink crepe de chine, made after a draped model, and with trimmings of rose point lace. Her hair was banded with pink chiffon, and finished with pink marabout. Her flowers were also pink asters. Mrs. William P. Ogilvy of Vancouver, B. C., was matron of honor, and her gown was of old rose crepe de chine, with an over dress of brocaded crepe de chine of the same shade. Venician lace was used on the corsage, and old rose velvet was the girdle. White aigrettes were in her hair. She carried white asters. Miss Hattie Utzinger, who assisted about the rooms at the informal reception which followed the ceremony, was gowned in white lingerie. She wore a white hat with black plumes. Mrs. Utzinger, the bride's mother, was seen in brocaded black silk, with gold lace trimmings. A black hat with purple plumes completed her costume. At the reception, the members of the D. M. C. D. Club, the Neighborhood Sewing club, the bridal party and intimate friends of the families, were present. Here, the dinning room was in yellow, while the living room was attractive in lavender and pink sweet peas.

The newly married couple left on the late train for Gearhart, where they will remain for the next week. They will be at home to their friends in this city at their home on Eleventh and Irving Avenue.

POPULAR COUPLE WED

HOWARD-UTZINGER NUPTIAL PRETTY FUNCTION.

Yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, Grace Episcopal Church was the scene of a pretty and impressive ceremony when Miss Nellie Utzinger, eldest daughter of Mrs. C. C. Utzinger of this city became the bride of Mr. John Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Howard of Gooding, Idaho.

The beautiful ring service of the Episcopal Church was used, Rev. G. F. Rosenmuller, rector, officiating. Mrs. Brenham Van Dusen presided at the organ and preceeding the ceremony delighted the assembled guests with a number of beautiful selections. To the strains of Lohengrin's bridal chorus the wedding party entered the church, led by Mr. Stanley P. Young and Mr. William Utzinger.

Following the ushers came the two bridesmaids, Miss Valesku Liebe, of The Dalles, and Miss May Utzinger, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. William Prescott Ogilvie, (nee Carol Young) of Vancouver, B. C., came next as matron of honor. Then followed the bride upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Grover Utzinger. They were met at the altar by the groom attended by the best man, Mr. Randall Reed.

The church was tastefully decorated with masses of blue hydrangea, pink sweet peas and vine-clematis. This charming result was due to the efforts of the D. M. C. D. Club, of which Miss Utzinger is a member.

The bride was attired in a very dainty gown of white brocaded crepe silk meteor fashioned on princess lines with draped effect and trimmings of real lace. Her full length veil was caught with orange blossoms and arranged about her face in a Juliet cap. She wore a beautiful "pendant," the gift of the groom, and carried bride's roses with showers of white sweet peas.

The matron of honor was costumed in a handsome French gown of old rose crepe de chine, with overdress of same in pink brocade, the trimmings being of white Venetian lace with old rose velvet ribbons. With this was worn a band of tulle and white osprey in her hair. She carried white asters.

Miss Liebe's gown was a dainty shade of pink Charmeuse with corsage of bead trimming and lace frills. In her hair was a beautiful bird of paradise.

A charming gown of pink silk chepe de chine, in draped effect, with garnitures of rose point lace, was worn by Miss May Utzinger. A Maribou hair ornament completed her costume. Both brides' maids carried arm bouquets of pink asters.

Mrs. Utzinger, mother of the bride, was attired in a costume of heavy black silk with touches of gold lace and velvet hat with plumes.

The groom, ushers and best man wore the conventional black evening dress.

After the ceremony the bridal party left the altar to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march and proceeded to the home of the bride's mother, where a wedding supper was served to the immediate relatives, members of the D. M. C. D. club, neighborhood sewing club, and a few invited guests.

The house was beautifully decorated, the color scheme in the dining room being carried out in yellow, while in the living rooms, lavender and pink sweet peas and dahlias were used.

The newly wedded couple left by auto for the beaches, where they will spend their honeymoon. The bride's traveling suit was gray, worn with a chic white and black tailored hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard on their return will make their home in Astoria.

The Astorian wishes to be numbered among the many friends who extend hearty congratulations and best wishes.

On Tuesday evening of this week Miss Amy Holmes entertained the members of the D. M. C. D. club and surprised them with the announcement of the engagement of her sister, Miss Alma Holmes to Mr. Walter Dean Cary of Southern Oregon. The announcement came while the guests were seated in the dining room which was transformed for the occasion into a Japanese pagoda by means of brilliantly colored autumn leaves, lanterns, and shaggy chrysanthemums. At the place of Mrs. J. Howard, a recent bride of the club, a large chrysanthemum containing an envelope enclosing the cards of the engaged couple and the engagement ring, disclosed the news to the guests. Miss Holmes is the daughter of Mrs. Gust Holmes of this city, and is the popular member of several clubs which are already planning to do her honor with the usual social affairs. Mr. Cary has visited in Astoria and has many friends here who will be glad to congratulate him on his engagement. The wedding will take place in the early part of December.

Miss Anna Campbell and Mrs. J. F. Howard entertained the members of the D. M. C. D. club with a shower for Miss Alma Holmes, on Tuesday evening. The decorations took the form of Hallowe'en symbols in the parlors of the Howard home and the dining table was lighted by miniature jack o'lanterns and centered with a bowl of shaggy yellow asters and dahlia's. The shower proper was discovered by Miss Holmes in a huge artificial pumpkin. During the evening the guests sewed on the bride's trousseau.

Engagement Announced.

One of the most charming parties of the week was that given by Mrs. M. E. Masterson at which the engagement of her sister, Miss Margaret Mackay to George E. Bradley of Portland was announced. Miss Mackay is a very charming girl and has many friends who all wish her happiness. The wedding will be on January sixth. The afternoon was spent in sewing and music and later dainty refreshments were served at the home of Mrs. H. F. Prael. The party table looked very pretty in the shaded light of the candles reflected on the red carnations and the red hearts and cunning little cupids that were the decorations. As the guests were being seated the wedding march was played and this with the engagement announcement on the place cards made known the pleasant surprise. The invited guests were: Mesdames H. P. Graham, O. F. Morton, H. R. Hoefler, Thad. Trullinger, Paul Badollet, Carl Knutsen, W. C. Logan, W. A. Eigner, H. C. Harrison, J. F. Howard, H. W. Sherman, A. E. Hawes, M. H. Sanford, J. Utzinger, H. F. Prael, G. C. Fulton, K. Hobson, A. J. Poulson, H. W. Christensen, W. Stine, F. Vaughn, T. Laurin, C. L. Masterson, and Misses May Utzinger, Hattie Utzinger, Marie Utzinger and Margaret Mackay.
